

Beachfront Castle

Search for shells on your own 100-foot-long beach at this six-bedroom, six-bath oceanfront mansion at 4217 S. Ocean Blvd. in Highland Beach, priced at $25 million. In addition to a world-class gym, a saltwater pool with a swim-up bar, a hot tub, bar, wine fridge, 12-car showroom and elevator, the house boasts artistic features that were meticulously curated, including a range hood with pixies and a panel over the refrigerator, both of which hail from the 18th century. A breakfast area adjacent to the kitchen features a marble statue of a spring maiden with garland and a built-in cabinet from the 19th century.
